

Anna Mavroudi

Anna Mavroudi comes from Kea (Tzia) island in the Cyclades complex. She is an ex Regional Counselor for the South Aegean Region (2014-2019) and a teacher of the English language and culture in public secondary education since 2002. She also holds a M.A in Cultural Studies and Critical Theory.

She has worked in European and International Educational Relations, designed and coordinated a number of European programmes on local, regional and national level. She was also a member of the Committee for Gender Equality in Local Administration of the (Ministry of Internal Affairs), the National Committee for Quality Assurance in Lifelong Learning (GSLLL) and the Committee for Co-funded Programs (Ministry of Education).

Her interests include cultural heritage, socially vulnerable groups, education inequalities and Lifelong learning from the island perspective. She has also a keen interest in gender issues and has been President of The Federation of Cycladic Women Clubs since 2018. She is an invited speaker concerning Cycladic issues in many events and her articles about Cyclades are published in the local and national press.