

Laurence Koe is an experienced TV Director and producer and also an aerial filming operator, with a pfco licence from the CAA. His background as a TV producer and director, shows that he is comfortable with many aspects of leading a production team or operating and filming alone with cameras like FS7, C300, and DSLR. He uses the Canon 5D or Panasonic GH5, and the Osmo to complement the aerial filming footage. Laurence has a lot of experience filming abroad, and filming underwater or up mountains whilst skiing or snowboarding. Laurence Koe is the Director of 360TV in UK.