

Maurizio Aronica

Expert in international business and sustainability, he is the President of the Foundation for United Nations SDG, UNESCO Bologna Ambassador and International Recruiter stakeholder of the Council of Europe, for cultural itineraries.

On November 2022, the new international network CINETOURL nominated him as General Director to extend the concept of sustainability in the film industry.

For his commitment to the culture of Ukraine, he was awarded the title of “Commander Order of the Arts by the National Academy of Arts and Sciences of Ukraine and by the Governor of the Ivano-Frankivsk Region for the “significant contribution to the integration of Carpathian...”.

Thanks to his knowledge, he is often invited as a speaker at international politics conferences

Summary:

Ambassador of UNESCO Bologna Center (www.unesco.bo.it)

President of FFUN SDG (www.foundationforunitednations.org)

Founder of Bridgeast Consulting kft (www.bridgeast.eu)

General Director of World Sustainable International Film Festivals (www.cinetour.org)

Commander Order of the Arts of Ukraine.